Ariela Agosin, of Albagli Zaliasnik, named as one of 2019's Top 25 Latin American Women in Litigation by Benchmark Litigation

Benchmark Litigation has recognized Ariela Agosin as one of the Top 25 Latin American Women in Litigation in its annual Top 250 Women in Litigation publication. Agosin is a Chile-based litigator with Albagli Zaliasnik.

The Top 250 Women in Litigation publication's extensive research process, which encompasses months of investigation into the individual litigators' professional activities as well as client feedback surveys and individual interviews, has culminated in the selection of the most distinguished women in the world of litigation. These women have earned their place amongst the leading female litigators by participating in some of the most impactful litigation matters in recent history as well as by earning the hard-won respect of their peers and clients. Though they hail from widely different practice areas, they all share the distinction of being recognized as top players in their respective fields.

Listed within the Latin America section of the Top 250 Women in Litigation publication, Benchmark Litigation has this to say about Agosin:

Ariela Agosin, one of Benchmark Latin America's Top 25 Women in Litigation, won the very famous Chilean "Termas de Chillán" case after successfully litigating for over 10 years on the matter. One client speaks of Agosin as being "very educated and creative with a great legal knowledge."

Attorneys named to the 2019 publication were chosen through several phases of research: namely, the review of their recent case work, peer review in which we consider how attorneys at peer legal institutions might rank them, and a consideration of client feedback on their performances.

In addition to this honor, Albagli Zaliasnik also enjoys a number of firm-wide rankings and further individual attorney recognition by Benchmark Latin America. For more information, please see here:
