Robin Cohen of McKool Smith named as one of 2018's Top 250 Women in Litigation by Benchmark Litigation

Benchmark Litigation has recognized Robin Cohen as one of the Top 250 Women in Litigation in its annual Top 250 Women in Litigation publication. Cohen is a New York-based litigator with McKool Smith.

The Top 250 Women in Litigation publication's extensive research process, which encompasses six months of investigation into the individual litigators' professional activities as well as client feedback surveys and individual interviews, has culminated in the selection of the most distinguished women in the world of litigation. These women have earned their place amongst the leading female litigators by participating in some of the most impactful litigation matters in recent history as well as by earning the hard-won respect of their peers and clients. Though they hail from widely different practice areas, they all share the distinction of being recognized as top players in their respective fields.

Listed within the Northeast-New York section of the Top 250 Women in Litigation publication, Benchmark Litigation has this to say about Cohen:

Head of McKool Smith's insurance recovery practice, Robin Cohen represents insurers in complex insurance coverage matters. Throughout her 30-plus year career, she has tried numerous noteworthy insurance disputes, such as asbestos, product liability, and employment coverage cases. Most recently, she served as lead counsel to Cushman & Wakefield, the world's largest privately held real estate services firm, in securing a summary judgment ruling from the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois that allows the company to access $48 million in coverage from four insurers to cover defense costs and settlement payments in connection with four lawsuits concerning underlying appraisal-related claims. The court also rejected the insurers' counterclaims for recoupment of over $33 million already paid to Cushman by the carriers.

Attorneys named to the 2018 publication were chosen through several phases of research: namely, the review of their recent case work, peer review in which we consider how attorneys at peer legal institutions might rank them, and a consideration of client feedback on their performances.

In addition to this honor, McKool Smith also enjoys a number of firm-wide rankings and further individual attorney recognition by Benchmark Litigation. For more information please see here:
